

School of Liberal Arts

Political Science
ETE - Jun 2023

Time : 3 Hours

Marks : 100

Sem II - K1UB201T - History of Indian Economic Thoughts

Your answer should be specific to the question asked

Draw neat labeled diagrams wherever necessary

1. Discuss economic ideas of Kautilya. K2 CO1 (5)
2. Discuss various conditions imposed by Gandhiji for using machinery. K2 CO1 (5)
3. Classify the different features of Indian economic ideas. K2 CO1 (5)
4. "Kautilya was not only the foremost political-administrative thinker of ancient India but also values in current time." Illustrate. K3 CO3 (10)
5. Explain Prof. Mehta's state of wantlessness in the perspective of Indian economic ideas. K2 CO2 (10)
6. Show the differences between Ambedkar's and Gandhi's Economic ideas. K3 CO3 (10)
- 7) "Equitable distribution of tax proceeds between centre and provincial government and local bodies" Illustrate the statement. K3 CO3 (10)

OR

- Focus on the importance of Indian history of economic thought in the context of the Indian Economy. K3 CO3 (10)
8. Focus on different economic ideas given by J.K. Mehta in your own words. K4 CO2 (15)
 9. "The Export of Indian raw materials to England and the import of British manufacturing goods into India resulted in the drain of Indian wealth according to Dadabhai Naroji ". Analyze the statement. K4 CO4 (15)
 - 10) "Small-holdings, collective farming, land revenue, abolition, and landlordism are important issues" justify the statement with examples K5 CO4 (15)

OR

- Koyaji Said that "Ranade was the first economist in India after Kautilya" Criticize the statement. K5 CO4 (15)