School of Law Bachelor of Law ETE - Aug 2023

Time : 3 Hours

Marks : 100

TRIMESTER I - MLAW5003 - LAW AND JUSTICE IN A GLOBALIZING WORLD

Your answer should be specific to the question asked Draw neat labeled diagrams wherever necessary

<ul> <li>3. Write about the Structure and functioning of UN as an International body to establish Global justice.</li> <li>4. What is your understanding about the concepts of Equity and Equality?</li> <li>5. Primary rights, secondary rights and the value on which a society is constriucted defines the conceptualization of theoretical norms to explain the process of Global justice. Analyse the therotical development of global justice.</li> <li>6. Evaluate the relevance of International Treaties to bind different nations with mutual responsibility on justice aspect.</li> <li>7. "Racism, in all of its forms, remains a massive cause of discrimination, indignity, and lack of equality for millions of people in the world today" Do you agree with this statement or not? Establish your point.</li> <li>8. Respecting the dignity and integrity of people with disabilities is the core of the new disability Justice and Rights.</li> <li>9. Discuss the strategies to measure the status of rule of law with the use of Impartial Indicators of justice.</li> <li>10. A. "Theory of distributive justice explains why certain individuals have particularly stringent claims to certain relative or absolute shares, quantities, or amounts of something whose distribution over certain people must be justifiable to them". Narrate your argument on Distributive justice to establish social justice.</li> <li>8. Poverty is not just a latent concept, but a lived experience-occurring in contexts and with</li> </ul>	1.	The relevance of Universal Jurisdiction and Domestic Jurisdiction for a Global Justice system. Explain	K2 CO1	(5)
<ul> <li>justice.</li> <li>4. What is your understanding about the concepts of Equity and Equality?</li> <li>K2 CO2 (5)</li> <li>5. Primary rights, secondary rights and the value on which a society is constriucted defines the conceptualization of theoretical norms to explain the process of Global justice. Analyse the therotical development of global justice.</li> <li>6. Evaluate the relevance of International Treaties to bind different nations with mutual responsibility on justice aspect.</li> <li>7. "Racism, in all of its forms, remains a massive cause of discrimination, indignity, and lack of equality for millions of people in the world today" Do you agree with this statement or not? Establish your point.</li> <li>8. Respecting the dignity and integrity of people with disabilities is the core of the new disability Justice and Rights.</li> <li>9. Discuss the strategies to measure the status of rule of law with the use of Impartial Indicators of justice.</li> <li>10. A. "Theory of distributive justice explains why certain individuals have particularly stringent claims to certain relative or absolute shares, quantities, or amounts of something whose distribution over certain people must be justifiable to them". Narrate your argument on Distributive justice to establish social justice.</li> <li>OR</li> <li>B. Poverty is not just a latent concept, but a lived experience-occurring in contexts and with</li> </ul>	2.	Trace the roads of Global Justice Movement.	K2 CO2	(5)
<ul> <li>5. Primary rights, secondary rights and the value on which a society is constriucted defines the conceptualization of theoretical norms to explain the process of Global justice. Analyse the therotical development of global justice.</li> <li>6. Evaluate the relevance of International Treaties to bind different nations with mutual responsibility on justice aspect.</li> <li>7. "Racism, in all of its forms, remains a massive cause of discrimination, indignity, and lack of equality for millions of people in the world today" Do you agree with this statement or not? Establish your point.</li> <li>8. Respecting the dignity and integrity of people with disabilities is the core of the new disability rights paradigm. It proved the power of law that, law is the most powerful tool to bring any real social change. Discuss your understanding of Law and Global Justice in relation to Disability Justice and Rights.</li> <li>9. Discuss the strategies to measure the status of rule of law with the use of Impartial Indicators of justice.</li> <li>10. A. "Theory of distributive justice explains why certain individuals have particularly stringent claims to certain relative or absolute shares, quantities, or amounts of something whose distribution over certain people must be justifiable to them". Narrate your argument on Distributive justice to establish social justice.</li> <li>B. Poverty is not just a latent concept, but a lived experience-occurring in contexts and with</li> </ul>	3.		K2 CO1	(5)
<ul> <li>conceptualization of theoretical norms to explain the process of Global justice. Analyse the therotical development of global justice.</li> <li>Evaluate the relevance of International Treaties to bind different nations with mutual responsibility on justice aspect.</li> <li>"Racism, in all of its forms, remains a massive cause of discrimination, indignity, and lack of equality for millions of people in the world today" Do you agree with this statement or not? Establish your point.</li> <li>Respecting the dignity and integrity of people with disabilities is the core of the new disability rights paradigm. It proved the power of law that, law is the most powerful tool to bring any real social change. Discuss your understanding of Law and Global Justice in relation to Disability Justice and Rights.</li> <li>Discuss the strategies to measure the status of rule of law with the use of Impartial Indicators of justice.</li> <li>A. "Theory of distributive justice explains why certain individuals have particularly stringent claims to certain people must be justifiable to them". Narrate your argument on Distributive justice to establish social justice.</li> <li>B. Poverty is not just a latent concept, but a lived experience-occurring in contexts and with</li> </ul>	4.	What is your understanding about the concepts of Equity and Equality?	K2 CO2	(5)
<ul> <li>responsibility on justice aspect.</li> <li>7. "Racism, in all of its forms, remains a massive cause of discrimination, indignity, and lack of equality for millions of people in the world today" Do you agree with this statement or not? Establish your point.</li> <li>8. Respecting the dignity and integrity of people with disabilities is the core of the new disability rights paradigm. It proved the power of law that, law is the most powerful tool to bring any real social change. Discuss your understanding of Law and Global Justice in relation to Disability Justice and Rights.</li> <li>9. Discuss the strategies to measure the status of rule of law with the use of Impartial Indicators of justice.</li> <li>10. A. "Theory of distributive justice explains why certain individuals have particularly stringent claims to certain relative or absolute shares, quantities, or amounts of something whose distribution over certain people must be justifiable to them". Narrate your argument on Distributive justice to establish social justice.</li> <li>OR</li> <li>B. Poverty is not just a latent concept, but a lived experience-occurring in contexts and with</li> </ul>	5.	conceptualization of theoretical norms to explain the process of Global justice. Analyse the	K3 CO3	(10)
<ul> <li>equality for millions of people in the world today" Do you agree with this statement or not? Establish your point.</li> <li>8. Respecting the dignity and integrity of people with disabilities is the core of the new disability rights paradigm. It proved the power of law that, law is the most powerful tool to bring any real social change. Discuss your understanding of Law and Global Justice in relation to Disability Justice and Rights.</li> <li>9. Discuss the strategies to measure the status of rule of law with the use of Impartial Indicators of Justice.</li> <li>10. A. "Theory of distributive justice explains why certain individuals have particularly stringent claims to certain relative or absolute shares, quantities, or amounts of something whose distribution over certain people must be justifiable to them". Narrate your argument on Distributive justice to establish social justice.</li> <li>B. Poverty is not just a latent concept, but a lived experience-occurring in contexts and with</li> </ul>	6.		K3 CO4	(10)
<ul> <li>rights paradigm. It proved the power of law that, law is the most powerful tool to bring any real social change. Discuss your understanding of Law and Global Justice in relation to Disability Justice and Rights.</li> <li>9. Discuss the strategies to measure the status of rule of law with the use of Impartial Indicators of K4 CO5 (15) justice.</li> <li>10. A. "Theory of distributive justice explains why certain individuals have particularly stringent claims to certain relative or absolute shares, quantities, or amounts of something whose distribution over certain people must be justifiable to them". Narrate your argument on Distributive justice to establish social justice.</li> <li>B. Poverty is not just a latent concept, but a lived experience-occurring in contexts and with</li> </ul>	7.	equality for millions of people in the world today" Do you agree with this statement or not?	K3 CO4	(10)
<ul> <li>justice.</li> <li>A. "Theory of distributive justice explains why certain individuals have particularly stringent claims to certain relative or absolute shares, quantities, or amounts of something whose distribution over certain people must be justifiable to them". Narrate your argument on Distributive justice to establish social justice.</li> <li>DR</li> <li>B. Poverty is not just a latent concept, but a lived experience-occurring in contexts and with</li> </ul>	8.	rights paradigm. It proved the power of law that, law is the most powerful tool to bring any real social change. Discuss your understanding of Law and Global Justice in relation to Disability	K4 CO6	(15)
claims to certain relative or absolute shares, quantities, or amounts of something whose distribution over certain people must be justifiable to them". Narrate your argument on Distributive justice to establish social justice. OR B. Poverty is not just a latent concept, but a lived experience-occurring in contexts and with	9.	· · · ·	K4 CO5	(15)
B. Poverty is not just a latent concept, but a lived experience-occurring in contexts and with	10.	claims to certain relative or absolute shares, quantities, or amounts of something whose distribution over certain people must be justifiable to them". Narrate your argument on Distributive justice to establish social justice.	K5 CO6	(20)
		B. Poverty is not just a latent concept, but a lived experience-occurring in contexts and with others. Poverty is not just a latent concept, but a lived expenence-occurring in contexts and with others. Poverty, however, despite being an obvious violation of human rights, does not seem to be a matter of concern for those in the legal field. How do you construct your Law and Global Justice ideas you derived from our class discussions to affirm justice in considerations to the right to human dignity.