

School of Law
Bachelor of Law
Summer Term - Sep 2023

Time : 3 Hours

Marks : 50

Sem VIII - BBLB4034 - Patent Drafting and Specification Writing

Your answer should be specific to the question asked

Draw neat labeled diagrams wherever necessary

1. Discuss novelty as a condition for patentability in India. K1 CO1 (2)
2. "Patent is a territorial right". Explain with the help of examples. K1 CO2 (2)
3. Explain the requirement of 'non obviousness' for patentability in India K2 CO2 (2)
4. Discuss who is entitled to apply for patent in India. K2 CO3 (2)
5. Discuss the concept of utility patent with the help of relevant examples. K2 CO3 (2)
6. Explain the difference between provision and complete specification and its relevance. K3 CO4 (5)
7. Discuss the essential components of specification as required under the Patent Act, 1970. K3 CO4 (5)
8. Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of provisional patent application K4 CO5 (6)
9. "India relies on prior claim approach for ground of opposition". Elaborate this approach with the help of relevant caselaws. K4 CO5 (8)
10. "Controller General is one of the major stakeholder in the process of grant of patent". Discuss the role, qualification, and functions of the Controller General. K5 CO5 (8)
11. You are a technology company in India developing a revolutionary artificial intelligence algorithm. Draft a non-disclosure agreement (NDA) between your company and a potential licensee, outlining the terms and obligations for maintaining the confidentiality of the algorithm during discussions and negotiations. Also state the importance of non-disclosure clause in cases of contracts relating to patent. K5 CO6 (8)