

School of Law

Bachelor of Law
ETE - Jun 2023

Time : 3 Hours

Marks : 100

Sem II - J1UA201T/BLLB1021

Constitutional Law II

Your answer should be specific to the question asked

Draw neat labeled diagrams wherever necessary

1. Describe Constitutionalism. K1 CO1 (5)
2. Discuss the role of bureaucracy in governance of India. K1 CO2 (5)
3. Discuss the qualification of Members of Parliament in India. K2 CO3 (5)
4. Discuss the role of President in the Indian governance. Further, analyse the pardon granting power of President, with help of case-laws. K3 CO3 (10)
5. Elaborate the concept of Constitutionalism in general. While elaborating upon the factors of the same, give examples from the Indian Constituion. K2 CO1 (10)
- 6) "Independence of judiciary is not only crucial for rule of law but also other factors of the constitutionalism ensuring a well-governed democracy." In the backdrop of this statement answer with help of relevant provisions and the case-laws. K4 CO4 (10)

OR

- Elaborate on the powers of the High Court as per the Indian Constitutional provisions. How do they differ from the powers of the Supreme Court of India. K4 CO4 (10)
7. Elaborate upon the concept of disqualification of Member of Parliament. Explain the case of Rahul Gadhi while referring to the election law and constitutional law and precedents in this regard. K3 CO2 (10)
 8. Write short notes on the following doctrines:
(i) Doctrine of Colorable Legislation
(ii) Doctrine of Harmonious Construction K4 CO5 (15)
,CO2
 9. Write a short note on the following:
a. The nature of Indian Judicial System with its distinctive features.
b. Appeal by Certificate K5 CO1 (15)
,CO4
 - 10) "Keshvananda Bharti case originated the doctrine of basic structure, but the cases of Indira Gandhi v Raj Narain, and of Minerva Mills v Union of India established this doctrine." In the backdrop of this statement answer the following with the help of case laws:
a. The concept of the basic structure doctrine
b. The balance between the Fundamental Rights v DPSPs K5 CO6 (15)
,CO2

OR

- Write short notes on the following: K5 CO6 (15)
a. Meaning and concept of Emergency
b. Grounds for the Emergency ,CO2