

School of Law

Bachelor of Law
ETE - Jun 2023

Time : 3 Hours

Marks : 100

Sem IV - J1UB405T / BLA02036

Health Law

*Your answer should be specific to the question asked
Draw neat labeled diagrams wherever necessary*

1. Discuss the issues associated with Advance Medical Directives. K2 CO3 (5)
2. Differentiate between active and passive Euthanasia and also state which of them is recognised under Indian Law. K1 CO1 (5)
3. Explain Hippocratic Oath. Can doctor's deviate from this oath? Justify your answer. K1 CO2 (5)
4. Discuss the various provisions which deal with right to health in the Constitution of India. K3 CO2 (10)
5. Comment on the constitutionality of Euthanasia in India. K4 CO4 (10)

OR

- "Medical negligence has become one of the serious issues in the country in recent years. Even the medical profession, which is known to be one of the noblest professions, is not immune to negligence which often results in the death of the patient or complete/partial impairment or any other misery which has adverse effects on the patient's health."* In light of the above, evaluate the role of judiciary with respect to medical negligence. K4 CO5 (10)
6. Discuss how and when a medical professional can be held criminally liable for negligence. K3 CO3 (10)
 7. "Seldom, our society realizes or cares to realize the trauma, agony, and pain which the members of the Transgender community undergo, nor appreciates the innate feelings of the members of the Transgender community, especially of those whose mind and body disown their biological sex." In light of the given statement, comment on the issues and challenges faced by transgender community in India. K2 CO1 (10)
 8. Commercial surrogacy, or "wombs for rent," is a growing business in India. Comment on the legality of surrogacy in India and what are the problems associated with it. K4 CO3 (15)
 9. Analyze the Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act. and evaluate the changes brought by the 2021 amendment. K5 CO5 (15)
 10. Evaluate the law with respect of medical negligence in India in light of the law laid down in Jacob Mathews v State of Punjab case. K5 CO4 (15)

OR

- Elaborate in the light of Bolam test the standard of care expected from a medical professional. K5 CO6 (15)