

ADMISSION NUMBER

School of Law
Bachelor of Law
Semester End Examination - May 2024

Duration : 180 Minutes
Max Marks : 100

Sem VI - J1UA606T - Comparative Constitution

General Instructions

Answer to the specific question asked

Draw neat, labelled diagrams wherever necessary

Approved data hand books are allowed subject to verification by the Invigilator

- 1) Human Rights are not outcome of any Constitution- Evaluate K1 (2)
- 2) Criminalisation of Politics has adversely effected the Democratic Process. Explain K2 (4)
- 3) Explain the concept of administrative discretion and its role in administrative decision-making. Discuss the factors that may influence the exercise of administrative discretion and evaluate the balance between the need for administrative flexibility and the requirement for accountability and transparency. K2 (6)
- 4) Ex post facto laws are prohibited under indian Constitution. Discuss the scope of the right along with the rationale behind such provision. K3 (9)
- 5) What are the key similarities and differences between the judicial review processes in different countries, such as the United States and the United Kingdom, with a particular focus on their respective constitutional frameworks and the role of courts in interpreting and reviewing the constitutionality of laws K3 (9)
- 6) The Constitution of India is federal in times of peace and unitary in times of emergency- Comment. K5 (10)
- 7) Compare and contrast the procedural aspects and the impact on fairness of pre-decisional hearings versus post-decisional hearings within administrative law contexts, highlighting their respective roles in ensuring due process and procedural justice. K4 (12)
- 8) How do legal provisions in India address women's right to share in ancestral property? Explain the significance of recent legislative changes and judicial decisions in promoting gender equality in property rights. K5 (15)
- 9) How do the principles of constitutionalism manifest differently in parliamentary systems compared to presidential systems, and what impact do these differences have on governance, accountability, and the protection of citizens' rights K5 (15)
- 10) Determine and elucidate the legal systems of India and the United States that have exceptions to judicial review. Examine the justification for these exceptions and consider the effects they may have on the rule of law, the separation of powers, and the efficiency of democratic institutions in both nations. K6 (18)